1. March Song — "UNCLE SAMUEL'S SONS ARE ON THEIR WAY"

This is a very lively marching tune, and the most patriotic American song since the Star Spangled Banner.

2. "U. S. FOREST RANGERS MARCH"

A lively military march, respectfully dedicated to the U. S. Forest Service.

3. "CONQUEST OF THE WEST MARCH"

Dedicated to the pioneers of the West (of whom the composer is one), containing a two-verse song in the trio in the form of a toast to the old pioneers, and intrducing Indian war dance.

4. "ASSEMBLY OF THE CONSCRIPTS MARCH"

A very lively military march and two-step, with a hint of the raw recruit in the introduction, and then swinging into a perfected military finish with a vim.

5. "RETURN OF THE BILL ELK MARCH"

Dedicated to the Benevolent Order of Elks. This march gives the best imitation of the whistling of the bull elk ever produced in music, and is one of the very best military marches in print.

6. "A SWEET GIRL IS DREAMING OF YOU"

A wartime love song that nobody can afford to miss.
